1	...	11-5-03	Basettappa, No. 28 Dodda Matt, Akkipet.	Municipal Prosecuting Inspector.	...	For not obtaining license from the President for erecting a cattle-shed.	Acquitted 29th June 1903.	Two witnesses were examined for the prosecution. It is contended for the accused, among other things, that this shed is not on the edge of the road but that it is behind a line of shops which are adjacent to the road. This fact has been admitted by the witnesses for the prosecution, hence there was no necessity to go any further into the evidence for the prosecution. Section 148, Municipal Regulations, makes it penal to build in or near a street without license. But in this case the shed is put up behind a row of shops which are near the road. Hence I find the accused not guilty of the offence under Section 148, Municipal Regulations, and therefore acquit him under Section 245, Criminal Procedure Code. (Sd.) Vaidyanatha Iyer, City Magte.
